

CUSTOMER SERVICE EMPLOYEE

JOB DESCRIPTION

Educated by on - the - job training methods -- typically as trial - by - fire methods, your job is to resolve any unreasonable customer complaints as well as deep psychological problems that originated during early childhood experiences that the customer had when they entered your place of business or called you on the telephone.

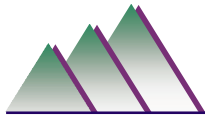

Furthermore, you are to communicate effectively and diplomatically with all irate, livid and enraged customers, yet don't waste time with non - related chit - chat. Foster and promote service among the prima donnas in your workplace, motivate the mediocre, boost the morale of the burned out, decrease pressure for the stressed out and squeeze excess amounts of work into a shrinking amount of time using less money.

And by the way . . .

Being faster than a speeding bullet and able to leap tall buildings is an asset and may come in handy.
